JIM WIEDA

Jim Wieda is a truly gifted musician, boasting a wide variety of musical repertoire. With his extensive orchestral abilities, Jim delivers crowd-pleasing performances everywhere he goes.

A life long music maker, Jim began playing at age seven and quickly became immersed with organ performance and started playing for weddings at age nine.

Jim has crossed the North American continent as well as Europe, entertaining people at every stop with his unique style and musical diversity. His enthusiastic pursuit of music and his wholehearted belief in the benefits of music making provides and empowers Jim with an energetic desire to introduce people to the fun and fulfilling endeavor of playing the Lowrey Orchestra.

Jim Wieda serves as Lowrey's Product Development and Promotions Manager. He is also a Lowrey Regional Representative for a large region of the United States and for Europe.

RUSS PECK

The Organ Stop Holiday Party would not be complete without our friend Russ Peck. Russ has played pre-dinner music for these events since the very beginning. He has enjoyed the challenge of performing on the many instruments we have presented, often with very little notice. Russ is the official theatre organist for the San Diego Symphony. He also presents silent film accompaniments at the Balboa Theatre in San Diego and Trinity Facilities in Spring Valley. He serves as a substitute organist in local churches and is Principal Timpanist and Percussionist for the Tifereth Israel Community Orchestra.

Combined Organ Class / Student Holiday Recital and Potluck Lunch

On Friday, December 20 at 10:00am, we invite members of all classes and private students to attend our annual holiday class party. Come play a tune of your choice or just come and listen to the progress your fellow students have made this year! This will be our final class event of 2013. All classes will resume the first week of January, 2014.

Fourth Sunday Organ Players Club

We open the Organ Stop showroom on the fourth Sunday of each month at 2:30pm for an informal gathering of those who enjoy playing the organ and those who enjoy listening. No reservations are required but you are always welcome to schedule a time to rehearse earlier in the week on whatever instrument you choose to play. Each month is always full of surprises since we have folks who play theatre, orchestral and classical organ, piano, sing, and even present duets. You are welcome to bring appetizers and desserts. The next three dates will be:
