Jim Vogelman

Jim gives thrilling, memorable performances nationally and around the world. His music reflects not only an amazing technique, but his considerable skills in composition and arranging. His career began at the age of nine, when he was engaged by Wurlitzer Organ Company to perform both live and on radio, later evolving to national television and stage venues. Over the years, recognition and demand for his exceptional talent as an arranger and performer in the digital medium has spread throughout the U.S. and in Europe, from the Walt Disney Studios in Florida, to red carpet events in Los Angeles and international organ festivals worldwide. As Manager and Musical Director of the internationally famous The Ink Spots®, Jim is honored to be associated with these Living Legends of American Music. As a “repeat favorite in the United States and Europe”, he continues to travel extensively as a staff artist for Lowrey, performing and conducting workshops. In concert halls and on professional stages, the Lowrey organ is at Jim’s fingertips, either performing with The Ink Spots® or as a solo act in some of the most famous venues in music. Jim’s special workshop is designed to show how to apply the amazing musical capabilities of the Lowrey organ to any song you play.

RUSS PECK

Russ Peck is the official theatre organist for the San Diego Symphony. He also presents silent film accompaniments at the Balboa Theatre in San Diego and Trinity Facilities in Spring Valley. Each year everyone looks forward to Russ’s rhythmic dance music.

Fourth Sunday Organ Players Club

Join us on the fourth Sunday of each month at 2:30 for an informal gathering of those who enjoy playing the organ and those who enjoy listening. Reservations are required. The last few meetings we enjoyed diverse venues and some rare playing opportunities. In August we met at the Seppala home, In September at the Spreckels Organ Pavilion, in October at the Kambeitz/Peterson residence, and in November at Trinity Presbyterian Church. Each month is full of surprises since we have folks who play theatre, orchestral and classical organ, piano, ukulele and duets.

Call or email Organ Stop to be added to the Players Club notification list. Let us know if you are willing to host a meeting in your home. To protect the privacy of our hosts, notification will only be sent to those who register to be on the list.

*We will not meet in December due to Christmas.
The next meeting will be January 28 at the Seppala home.*

Organ Class Holiday Recital and Potluck Lunch

On Friday, December 15 at 12:30, we invite members of both classes to attend our annual holiday class recital and pot-luck lunch. Come play a tune of your choice or enjoy listening to the progress your fellow students have made. This will follow the regularly scheduled Theatre Organ Class at the Seppala residence. Reservations are required.

Giant Pre-Owned Organ Sale
